

Website Assignment

To complete the website assignment, I utilized 2 images and a pdf that I took and created. The pictures are of works I contributed significantly to and am responsible for the creation of. The first image is from a website I designed and created for Steven Olikara's Senate campaign and the second image is of a public marketplace, OpenSea, used to launch the NFT collection I helped design for a company named ExpressionMeds. The pdf used is a downloaded copy of my personal resume that was entirely written and created by myself. These are all fair use since I created/wrote the items used and have made a significant contribution to each project.
